

Celebration of New Moon with Axiatonal Alignment

For me, New Moon has always been a time to journey within, to take some quiet time to understand what life is asking of me, and what I am asking of life. Am I following a path of the highest and best good for my own personal development and for those whom I influence? This is the time when I may receive messages from the Universe that will guide me and I need to create space for them.

This is also a time when I set my intent for the next 28-day cycle. My intent may be to listen and act on the messages I receive, or to bring a new energy into my business and life. To assist in this process, I use the energy of Axiatonal Alignment. At New Moon a few friends share this energy with me and I would now like to extend an invitation for you to join us.

Axiatonal Alignment clears, energizes and aligns the centers and pathways in the body that connect us with our divine aspect. It works on a very subtle grid of universal light that helps us to renew; and renewal is for me, what New Moon is all about. I renew my connection with Self, Spirit, and the world I have created.

For those of you who wish to join me in this endeavour, I will be offering New Moon Axiatonal Alignment sessions at the Provision Centre, 10 Roden Place, on the 1st of September, the 3rd of October, the 2nd of November and the 1st of December between 6pm and 8pm. Each session lasts about 15 minutes. Cost is $15. I have also scheduled a class in Axiatonal Alignment for those who like to learn how to do the technique for themselves on October 2nd.
